

UNO Educational Leadership – LEADER WORK SAMPLE CASE STUDIES

Rubric

Unacceptable	Acceptable	Target
A central problem is identified	Adequately identified central problem	Clearly identified central problem
Minimal evidence to support central problem identification	Provided some evidence to support central problem identification	Provided sound evidence to support central problem identification
Secondary problem(s) identified	Adequately identified secondary problem(s)	Clearly identified secondary problem(s)
Minimal evidence exists to support secondary problem(s)	Provided some evidence to support secondary problem(s)	Provided sound evidence to support secondary problem(s)
Fewer than two alternative solutions for the problem are proposed	Two alternative solutions for the problem are proposed	Three strong and well supported alternative solutions for the problems are proposed
Evaluation of advantages and disadvantages of each alternative is not clearly evident.	Evaluation of advantages and disadvantages of each alternative is provided	Detailed evaluation of advantages and disadvantages of each alternative is provided
The alternative most likely to bring about desired change is not clearly explained	The alternative most likely to bring about desired change is explained	The alternative most likely to bring about desired change is explicated in detail